

Camp 2025 should be a great, fun time that is enjoyable for everyone.

However, for the experience to work safely for everyone, there has to be some ground rules based on the biblical standards that the camp is committed to.

The terms and conditions below reflect those standards :

- ☐ PARTICIPATION It is expected that everyone will be involved in the daily programme of activities which will include a daily service and group Bible studies.
- ☐ SAFETY For individual safety and that of others, each camper will be required to follow the instructions of the camp leaders during all of the activities of the week.
- ☐ DAMAGE AND THEFT Wilful damage to the property of Camp or to anyone else's belongings, or any act of theft, will not be tolerated.
- ☐ CAMPSITE Under no circumstances may any camper leave the campsite unless they have received permission from a camp leader and are accompanied by a worker.
- ☐ PERSONAL CONDUCT Acceptable standards of behaviour are required both when on and off the campsite. Unacceptable behaviour will be dealt with firmly and may result in the camper being sent home.
- ☐ ALCOHOL, SMOKING, etc. No alcohol or smoking or vaping is allowed in any part of the campsite. Neither will there be any smoking or consumption of alcohol during camp activities offsite. Possession and use of any substances classified by HM Government as illegal is forbidden.
